

Court Testimony Policy

In the event that Turning Point Therapy therapist is subpoenaed to testify or participate in court proceedings, the following terms will apply:

1. The hourly fee is $500
2. There are up to 6-hours of preparation time allotted for testifying. The average amount of time spent preparing for testimony is 3-hours. This will be added to the initial retainer fee. This equals $1500.
3. The average clinical day at Turning Point Therapy is 5-hours. Given the therapist will need to clear their schedule, a retainer of the equivalent amount for one day will be required. This equals $2500.
4. A charge of $.54 per mile (2016 IRS standard mileage rate) will be charged per number of miles traveled to testify. This will be clocked from the Turning Point Therapy Cedar Rapids office to the court house and back.
5. The initial retainer of $4000, along with the estimated miles needed to travel to the identified court house, will be required 3-business days prior to the subpoenaed date.
6. Should additional time beyond 1-day be required to fulfill the subpoena requirements, the client agrees to the same charges stated in numbers 1-5.
7. Should the therapist with Turning Point Therapy require more than 3-hours of preparation time, the additional charges will be billed to the client at the time that decision is made by the therapist.

By signing this document, I agree to the stipulations stated above. This includes agreeing to the charges of the initial retainer, plus mileage charges, and additional preparation fees deemed necessary, and providing the payment 3-business days prior to the court proceedings.
